

Marketing Research: Solved Questions

Chapters 1-3 (Introduction, Defining the Problem, Research Design). All answers are sourced only from the provided lecture PDFs (Tier 1). No external sources were used.

Questions and Solutions

Question 1

What is the main function of marketing research?

- ✓ a. To link the consumer and public to the marketer through information
- b. To manage a company's employees
- c. To increase the price of products
- d. To replace marketing managers

Correct answer: a. To link the consumer and public to the marketer through information

Rationale (Lecture): "It is the function that links the consumer and public to the marketer through INFORMATION."

Ch. 1, "What does 'Marketing Research' Mean?"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Question 2

Which of the following best describes research design?

- a. The process of editing collected data
- b. A summary of the research findings
- c. The process of communicating findings through videos
- ✓ d. A framework or blueprint for conducting a marketing research project

Correct answer: d. A framework or blueprint for conducting a marketing research project

Rationale (Lecture): "It is a framework or blueprint for conducting a marketing research project, that details the procedures necessary for obtaining the required information."

Ch. 1, "3. Research design"; also Ch. 3, "What is the Research design?"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Question 3

Which of the following is one of the 7Cs that should characterize the interaction between decision maker and researcher?

- ✓ a. Candour
- b. Control
- c. Calculation
- d. Competition

Correct answer: a. Candour

Rationale (Lecture): The 7Cs are "Communication, Cooperation, Confidence, Candour, Closeness, Continuity, Creativity."

Ch. 2, "1) Discussions with decision makers"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Question 4

Marketing research connects the consumer and public to the marketer through information.

- ✓ a. True
- b. False

Correct answer: a. True

Rationale (Lecture): "It is the function that links the consumer and public to the marketer through INFORMATION."

Ch. 1, "What does 'Marketing Research' Mean?"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Question 5

Marketing research is only concerned with identifying marketing problems and does not address opportunities.

- a. True
- ✓ b. False

Correct answer: b. False

Rationale (Lecture): Information is used to "identify and define marketing opportunities and problems." The definition also refers to "identification and solution of problem (and opportunities) in marketing."

Ch. 1, "What does 'Marketing Research' Mean?"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Question 6

Clearly defining a research problem is known as the easiest stages of a research project.

a. True

✓ b. False

Correct answer: b. False

Rationale (Lecture): "Clearly defining a research problem can be the most challenging stage in a research project."

Ch. 1, "1. Problem Definition"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Question 7

Marketing research always requires findings to be communicated only through a traditional written report.

a. True

✓ b. False

Correct answer: b. False

Rationale (Lecture): The written report is the traditional route, but "researchers use alternative means. Frequently these are visual, and can include videos, images or Infographics."

Ch. 1, "6. Communicating findings"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Question 8

Secondary data is important at the stage of problem definition.

✓ a. True

b. False

Correct answer: a. True

Rationale (Lecture): Secondary data "is essential at the stage of problem diagnosis."

Ch. 2, "3) Initial secondary data analyses"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Question 9

In its final format, the research proposal can serve as a ____ between the researcher and decision makers.

- ✓ a. Contract
- b. Hypothesis
- c. Model
- d. Questionnaire

Correct answer: a. Contract

Rationale (Lecture): "In its final format it can serve as a contract between the researcher and decision makers."

Ch. 2, "The Marketing Research Proposal"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Question 10

The researcher responds to the research brief with a

- a. Analytical model
- b. Debrief presentation
- c. Hypothesis
- ✓ d. Research proposal

Correct answer: d. Research proposal

Rationale (Lecture): "The researcher responds to the research brief with a research proposal."

Ch. 2, "How is the Problem Defined?"

Verification: Answer is 100% sourced from Lecture.

Answer Key

Q	Answer
1	a. To link the consumer and public to the marketer through information
2	d. A framework or blueprint for conducting a marketing research project
3	a. Candour
4	a. True
5	b. False
6	b. False
7	b. False
8	a. True
9	a. Contract
10	d. Research proposal